Clarification: Under the rules Elections Canada had no difficulty with us operating and receiving donations under the name Conservatives Against Fantino (a name that is currently registered with the Ontario Government). Out of concern that people may somehow believe we are representing the Conservative Party of Canada, however, they required us to pick a different name to register with them. We chose to register the name 'Against Fantino' for the sole reason that our literature was already printed and instead of throwing 60,000 brochures in the garbage we are simply changing the disclosure sentence on the literature to read, "Paid for by the Agent of Conservatives Against Fantino".

60,000 Fliers have been printed

Recently Peter Worthington of the Toronto Sun stated, "It is a horror story for ordinary people who were the victims of thuggery. But it's a greater horror story for the OPP which behaved with negligence, dereliction of duty and, yes, cowardice. Officers on the job turned a blind eye to people being beaten, homes threatened, curfews imposed, road blocks established. On occasion, the OPP even refused to come to the aid of a fellow officer being beaten. And now Julian Fantino wants to be a federal MP and cabinet minister. Shame on him for Caledonia, and for his failure to lead."

HELPLESS: Caledonia's Nightmare of Fear and Anarchy, And How the Law Failed Us All By Christie Blatchford of the Globe & Mail

Christie states, "As it turns out, the front line officers of the OPP were sold down the river too, by their senior ranks, in particular by two commissioners of the force, Gwen Boniface and Julian Fantino, who either subjugated themselves to government will, held their tongues or respectively dreamed up the disastrous operational plan for Caledonia and then stubbornly held onto it for dear life."
